11. (U) Ambassador confirmed, and received a copy of the decree as proof, that the Republic of Djibouti has ratified the Chemical Weapons Convention referred to in refuels.

12. (U) The ratification process was in two stages, beginning with formal ratification by the National Assembly on 24 December 2005 and mandatory affirmation by presidential decree on 31 December 2005. As no ratification would be law absent the proclamation of the President, post believes Djibouti's official date of ratification would be 31 December 12005. Djibouti signed the convention in 1993.

13. (U) Following is text (Embassy translation from French) of the presidential decree proclaiming the ratification as Djiboutian law:
